U.S. Attorney Timothy Q. Purdon to Participate in Media Conference at YWCA Cass Clay to Commemorate Domestic Violence Awareness Month

FARGO - United States Attorney Timothy Q. Purdon will tour the Fargo YWCA Emergency Shelter and Transitional Housing units on Thursday October 21, 2010, to commemorate national Domestic Violence Awareness Month and the YWCA Week Without Violence.

- * U.S. Attorney Purdon will also participate in a media conference to discuss his tour at 10:30 a.m. at the YWCA Emergency Shelter located at 3000 South University Drive in Fargo.

The YWCA Cass Clay's Transitional Housing program is a recent recipient of a Department of Justice grant in the amount of $249,985 to fund transitional housing assistance. The primary purpose of the YWCA Transitional Housing units is to provide assistance to homeless victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking.
